THE COURTS.

SUPREME COURT-CHAMBERS. The Mandamus Deuted.

Before Judge Leonard.

The People, on rel. Fernando Wood, vs. Richard B. Con

The People, ex rel. Fernando Wood, vs. Richard B. Connolly, Comptroller, dc.—In this case a motion was made before this Court on Friday, the 22d of February, for a writ of peromptory mandamus compelling the respondent to pay to the relator the sum of $13,500, being three quarters' rent of the premises Nos. 115 and 117 Kassau street, which had been leased by the relator to the municipal government for the use of the city law department, under and in pursuance of a resolution of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonally and the Board of Councilmen. Judge Leonard delivered his opinion yesterday, denying the application without prejudice to a renewal, in case of the removal of certain grounds of objection.

of counsel for plaintiff against the defendants, restraining them from disposing of certain securities deposited with them as a margin, and the defendants yesterday moved for the dissolution of that injunction. The plaintiff alleges that he leaned to the defendants $700,000, on 10,000 shares of Checago and Northwestern preferred stock; that there was an agreement on his (the plaintiff's) part to keep the margin good to ten per cent; that on or about the 23d of January, 1867, the stock having considerably depreciated, the defendant demanded more, for which the plaintiff furnished a margin to an amount which, embracing the estimated value of some bonds and stocks, was equivalent to $100,000; that on the evening of the 24th day of January plaintiff gave notification to the defendants that on the following day he would "take up" a portion of the Chicago and Northwestern stock, leaving ample margin for the remainder; that, according to the prevailing usage, the plaintiff was entitled until two o'clock P. M. of the day following to do this; that in the ascantime the defendants had disposed of, or at least pretended to have disposed of the stock at from fifty-six of fifty-sigh per cent, though the market price at that time was from sixty-one to sixty-four per cent.

The plaintiff alleges that by this operation he was defrauded, and claims damages in the sum of $250,000. The defence denies all the allegations of fraud, or any attempt to injure the plaintiff, and contend on this motion that he does not set forth facts sufficient to make eut a case to warrant the continuance of the injunction. The further hearing of the case is set down for Thursday, March 7.

COURT OF DYER AND TERMINER.

Charge of Areon Trial of John Kane for Murder in the First Degree—The Tenement House Burning in Thirty-first Street. Before Judge lograham and a Jury.

The trial of John Kane was resumed yesterday morning at half-past ten o'clock. Mr. Martindale, Attorney Among the spectators were several ladies. Hon. John Francis Magilire, M. P., for Cork, Ireland, was again present. He was introduced to Judge Ingraham and ral leading lawyers. Mr. Maguire is a member of Irish bar.

ONTINUATION OF TESTMONY FOR THE DEFENCE.

Bugh Farmer examined—Is in the liquor business; sold prisoner some cigars and brandy to the amount of $600 about a year ago; witness knows that Mr. Laycock sold whiskey to Mr. Kane; cannot say the amount; Mr. Laycock is now in Pittsburg (receipt put in).

John H. Witcox, an importer and manufacturer, deposed that he knew Kane five or six years; never heard anything against his character, and always regarded him favorably.

anything against his character, and always regarded h im favorably. To Mr. Martindale—I knew Kane when barkeeper in the Columbian Hotel, in Chatham street, and the general impression was that he was an upright young man; I begame acquainted with him in 1861, and I think he semained at the Columbian Hotel till 1865; I do not know where he wont to then.

James K. Maxwell, a merchant tailor, deposed that he had had business transactions with the prisoner in the sale of cle hing for the last four years; his reputation, so far as the witness knew, was good.

Mr. Martindale—Do you know anything of the reputation he bears in the community where he resides?

Witness—I do not.

Witness—I do not.

Witness—I do not.

William T. Galtie, a brown stone cutter, stated that so far as he knew the prisoner's reputation was good; but, in answer to Mr. Martindale, he said he did not know Kane's reputation in the community.

William Jordan testified in favor of the prisoner; sold him furniture in April last to the amount of $200.

In reply to Mr. Martindale, witness said he know the prisoner to have been what is called an "under boy" in the Columbian Hotel.

John L. Davis, a dry goods merchant, stated that he beld goods to Mr. Kane, and so far as he had had deal.

keep still."
To the Court—I heard no explosion, but when I heard he noise in the cellar the prisoner was there.

To Mr. Martindale—When the prisoner first told as to close the store he was fully dressed; he then rest up stairs, remained there had an hour and then ame down with his coat off and in his stocking feet.

To a Juror—The prisoner, on either of the times he sent to the cellar, had no candle; he did not take a satch; there was light enough from the gas jet in the assegs to throw a dim light into the cellar; I heard him nick the cellar flow. The winness rounded ont on the match; there was light enough from the gas jet in the passage to throw a dm light into the cellar; I heard him unlock the cellar door. (The witness pointed out on the model where he was standing when he saw the prisoner go down to the cellar.)

To Mr. Brady—I never saw the kerosene oil can; I did not smeil any kerosene that night.

Geo. T. Hyatt examined—Have been a shipping clerk for Butler & Co.; was atreated on a charge of having ebtained goods to the abount of $15 on an order purporting to be signed by A. T. Butler & Co.; was committed to the founds; saw Mrs. Dechesne in the corrider of the prison; she spoke to Sheehan and gave him something to eat; Sheehan spoke to me, and said the day before he was let out that he was innocent of this charge, that he wanted toget out and that he did not care a damn how he did so; he never spoke particularly about the charge against him; he on one occasion heard Mrs. Dechesne say to Sheehan that she had made it all right, and that if he took het advice he would soon getout, as kane deserved to get be years' imprisonment. William T. Brady, a carpenier, testified that in the month of May last he made require on Kane's house to the amount of $1,000.

Mr. Kohler stated that the spirite, &c., he had sold to Lane amounted to $2.462, and alegated. The last delivery of alle was in August.

Eane amounted to $2,502, and not sold that he had sold was in August.
William Abbott, an auctioneer, said that he had sold goods at auction to the prisoner before the fire. The prisoner had a good reputation among those who knew

This was the evidence for the defence TESTIMONY IS RESERVAL.

Bergeant Thomas Reed, in reply to Mr. Martindale, stated that he had placed officer Kulen at the door of Eane's premises on Thirty-first street and looked at him from the corner at the baker's stop, but could not distinguish his height nor the buttons on his coat. To Mr. Brady—I did this isst nicht by the Captain's directions, there was no moonlight; it as starlicht; the night of the 12th of December was not moonlight; I am pretty sure it was not.

Policeman Killen examined—At the time of the alarm of the fire he was standing within three hundred feet of the front of Kane's house, and did not see any person running from the door in Thirty-first street.

Captain Wilson stated that he had hast night placed binself at the baker's door that was spoken of, and could not see whether Killen, who was standing at the door of Kane's house, was in citizen's or policeman's sistence.
